

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON

As an American Citizen, I demand from you as a United States Senator without reproach,---an answer to

THIS QUESTION

In whose name and by what right do certain members of your party, claiming to be the whole cheese on the

FEDERAL SITE QUESTION

Presume to accept a location which sticks the United States for

$300,000

When a better site can be had, which is more agreeable to the people, and more suitable in every respect, for only

$50,000

I can prove it to you,

But not in private offices

Or enclosed rooms of hotels,

In automobiles, or at dinner parties

BUT OUT IN THE OPEN

Do you personally, or does any member of your party, want the proof or not?

SO, SHOUT!

An answer openly to either newspaper, if necessary at my expense, or mail me a letter, and I will be at your service. This Ad is for future reference in Congressional elections. Down here, there are some people, who like yourself, eat beefsteak, not soft dope—who are Republicans in thought, word and deed, who have no strings to pull, and who place pay or commission in a third place.
